MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF DISMISSAL OF CASE
BASED ON A MISUNDERSTANDING WITH THE COURT AS ONLY ONE UNITED STATES BASED DEFENDANT REMAINED UN-SERVED

NOW COMES, Plaintiffs, pursuant to SDNY Local Rule 6.3, and hereby request that this Honorable Court reconsider its ORDER of March 10, 2008, dismissing the case for failure to prosecute. Plaintiffs apologize to the Court for the confusion created by the initial Motion for Extension of Time to Serve which did not attach copies of the summonses already served. Because of this lack of clarity, this Honorable Court mistakenly believed that no defendant in the case had been served with the summons and complaint. Plaintiffs clarify this and advise the Court that ALL defendants located in the United States were properly served prior to the Court's Order except one, Gary French (who Plaintiffs discovered had changed jobs and moved just prior to service).

1. The time to serve the summons and complaint (within 120 days) expired on midnight March 5th, 2008. Prior to the expiration, Plaintiffs previously requested additional time to serve all defendants because it was unclear who had actually been properly served (the facsimile fingerprints on the attached exhibits indicate that many executed summonses were not received back by counsel until March 10, 2008). Plaintiffs clarify the current status of service on defendants as set forth below.

PROPER & TIMELY SERVICE WAS MADE ON ALL USA DEFENDANTS EXCEPT ONE

2. Plaintiffs retained process servers and private detectives throughout the United States and in foreign countries. As indicated by the executed Summons attached hereto as exhibits, Plaintiffs obtained successful proper and timely service prior to the expiration of the 120 days, and prior to the Court Order signed on March 7, 2008, on the following Defendants:

2.1. All Maxim & Stuff Magazine Defendants in New York, New York,

2.1.1. MAXIM MAGAZINE, (Exhibit A)

2.1.2. aka MAXIM, (Exhibit B)

2.1.3. STUFF MAGAZINE, (Exhibit C)

2.1.4. aka STUFF, (Exhibit D)

2.2. Defendant DENNIS STUFF, INC., in New York, New York, (Exhibit E)

2.3. Defendant ALPHA MEDIA GROUP in New York City, (Exhibit F)

2.4. Defendant QUADRANGLE CAPITAL PARTNERS in New York City, (Exhibit G)

2.5. Defendant QUADRANGLE GROUP LLC, in New York City (Exhibit H),

2.6. Defendant STEPHEN COLVIN in Bronxville, New York (Exhibit I),

2.7. Defendant SEAMUS McGRAW in the rural mountains of Pennsylvania (Exhibit J),

3. Although many services of process were in the final days to perfect service, Plaintiffs have made diligent efforts to serve all the Defendants in this case. Plaintiffs had no prior knowledge that several defendants had moved to London until informed by Maxim's General Counsel when he accepted service for several Defendants.

4. Plaintiffs spent thousands of dollars in private investigator fees, process server fees, search fees, and legal fees to locate and serve these defendants.

5. The only Defendants who were not served prior to the Court's order and remain un-served are:

- 5.1. Dennis Felix who is currently on the Caribbean Island of Mustique.
- 5.2. Ed Needham, who has moved to London, England.
- 5.3. Laura Winter, who has moved to London, England.
- 5.4. Dennis Publishing Inc., which recently changed its name to Dennis Publishing LTD and moved to England.
- 5.5. Mohammed Nahim Dawari, who lives in Afghanistan.
- 5.6. Abdul Basset Baktyari, who lives in Afghanistan.
- 5.7. Gary French, who cannot be located by any of our investigators.

6. The absence of all but one of these parties remaining un-served will not substantially affect the outcome of this case as it pertains to copyright infringement. Therefore, Plaintiffs would file voluntary dismissals on each of these Defendants and file the returned un-executed summonses with the Clerk if the case were to be returned to active status. As to only Laura Winter, Plaintiffs respectfully request the Court reconsider an extension of 60 days to serve the Summons and Complaint on Ms. Winter as set for below.

REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION TO SERVE ONLY DEFENDANT – LAURA WINTER

7. Plaintiffs are solely requesting an extension for one defendant, Laura Winter. Ms. Winter is a necessary party to this action, and this would avoid a future separate action. Until just recently, Laura Winter was believed to be in New York City where Plaintiffs repeatedly tried to locate her. Upon information and belief, Ms. Winter has, like other defendants, moved to London England. We have no reason to believe this move was permanent and expect her to return to her prior residence in New York City.

8. Local Civil Rule 6.3 ("Motions for Reconsideration or Reargument") reads as follows:

A notice of motion for reconsideration or reargument shall be served within ten (10) days after the docketing of the court's determination of the original motion. There shall be served with the notice of motion¹ a memorandum setting forth concisely the matters or controlling decisions which counsel believes the court has overlooked. The time periods for the service of answering and reply memoranda, if any, shall be governed by Local Civil Rule 6.1(a) or (b), as in the case of the original motion. No oral argument shall be heard unless the court directs that the matter shall be reargued orally.

S.D.N.Y. & E.D.N.Y. R. 6.3

9. A motion for reconsideration may be granted where “there is a need to correct clear error or manifest injustice.” In re Rambus Inc., Docket No. 9303,2003 FTC LENS 49 (Mar. 26, 2003) (citing Regency Communications, Inc. v. Cleartel Communications, Inc., 212 F. Supp. 2d 1,3 (D.D.C. 2002).

10. The dismissal of this case, even without prejudice, is an extremely harsh penalty because it would completely obliterate any chance of justice for the Plaintiffs as re-filing would be beyond the statute of limitations, Hamilton Copper & Steel Corp. v. Primary Steel, Inc., 898 F.2d 1428, 1429 (9th Cir.1990).

CONCLUSION

11. The Court’s Order (Exhibit K) dismissing the case for failure to serve process upon any Defendant was simply the result of a misunderstanding with the Court relevant to which parties were actually served and which were not. For this, Plaintiffs sincerely apologize. The service of process in this case has been time consuming and costly. Still, all of the Defendants have been served except one who simply cannot be located and those located outside the United States. The attorneys for Plaintiffs and the Plaintiffs both request the time for service be extended for 60 days solely for Defendant Laura Winter to find and serve Ms. Winter in London.

¹ Defendants have not yet entered an appearance, so no Notice of Motion has been served.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request this Honorable Court reconsider its Order to Dismiss for failure to prosecute, reinstate the case to active status, and enter an order extending the time to find and serve only Laura Winter for an additional 60 days, and such further relief as be just and proper.

This 12th day of March 2008,

Service Information:

Directions to House As Written by McGraw:

From New Jersey or New York or other points east: Take I-80 West to the first exit in Pennsylvania, Exit 310, after the toll. Once you are on the exit ramp take the first right to Route 611 south/Visitor's Center. The ramp curves around; at the traffic light, go STRAIGHT across the divided highway (you'll see the white visitors center on the right after you cross). You will now be on River Road.

From Lehigh Valley, Philadelphia: Get to Route 22 east to Route 33 north. Take Route 33 north 17 miles, staying straight on Route 209 north when Route 33 splits off to go toward Interstate 80 WEST. You want Interstate 80 EAST, so stay on Route 209 north. Take I-80 East to Exit 310, the last exit before the Delaware River. At the exit ramp, stay in the left-hand lane and make the left at the first traffic light. The visitors center will be to your left (it'll be on your right side after you make the turn).

From all points, once on River Road:

Take River Road a couple of miles, past the Shawnee Inn resort. Once you see Sam Snead's restaurant on the right, followed by the beige-clapboard Shawnee General Store, get ready to turn LEFT onto Hollow Road. Follow the twists and turns of Hollow Road another couple of miles. You'll see Shawnee Play Place water park on your right -- turn left there onto Frutche Road.

At the end of this road, turn right. You're now on Route 209 north. Quite quickly, you'll see Country Club of the Poconos on the left. Right after that, on the left, is Sellersville Drive. There's a McDonald's on the corner.

Make a left onto Sellersville Drive. You're going about two miles. You'll go through two quick stop signs. AFTER the second stop sign, make the first right onto Upper Lakeview Drive (don't be taken in by Lower Lakeview Drive, an earlier street).

Take Upper Lakeview about a half-mile and make the first left onto Turkey Ridge Road. Go about another half-mile, past Stony Ledge Road, and make the next right into the Winona Lakes development. The turn comes up very suddenly at the top of a hill and on a curve, so drive slowly.

The main entrance has big wooden signs saying "Winona Lakes - Kakhout Mountain" and the street is Clubhouse Drive.

Take this road straight, through two stop signs, down a very steep hill, across a one-lane bridge, up a very steep hill with a hairpin turn.

After all this, drive another a mile and the first left turn is Hilltop Circle, a gravel road. Make the left, then make your second left onto Mountain Pass.

Our house is about halfway down the hill, on the right-hand side. It's the only paved driveway on Mountain Pass. There's a small wooden sign that says LOT 11 on the telephone pole just before the driveway.

The driveway is about 300 feet long and our house is at the end of it, a two-story red cedar house. We have three dogs, but they're all harmless. Even the Rottweiler.

PHONE NUMBER: 570-588-6000. Cells usually don't work in this area.

McGraw is a writer who works from home. In this case, he is probably the only good guy. According to him, he is only in the case because of what his bosses did.

ORDER

MAXIM MAGAZINE, a/k/a MAXIM, ET AL.

Defendants.

-----X
DEBORAH A. BATTS, United States District Judge.

The Complaint in this action was filed on November 5, 2007 but Plaintiffs have yet to complete service of process upon any of the Defendants named in this action. Plaintiffs filed an ex parte motion seeking to extend the time to serve the summons and complaint in this case for an additional ninety (90) days (Docket Entry No. 4). Plaintiffs' motion is DENIED. The Court hereby ORDERS that the Complaint in this matter be DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for failure to prosecute. See Lyell Theatre Corp. v. Loews Corp., 682 F.2d 37, 42 (2d Cir. 1982) (holding that a district court's authority to dismiss an action for plaintiff's failure to prosecute "cannot seriously be doubted"). The Clerk of Court is directed to close the docket for this case.

SO ORDERED.
